

SAVE THE DATE

WWBIC'S ANNUAL LUNCHEON ON GIVING TUESDAY

LET'S GET REAL

EXPLORE • ENGAGE • ELEVATE

12.03.2019

POTAWATOMI HOTEL &
CASINO | MILWAUKEE, WI

10:30 am - Registration & Small Biz Market

12:00 pm - Luncheon & Program

Registration: bit.ly/elevatelunch

Sponsorships: Begin at $1,000 | Individual Tickets: $75

Connect: Lisa Sullivan RSVP@wwbic.com or 414.395.4544

This year WWBIC's Luncheon will showcase: WWBIC's impact in urban and rural Wisconsin; independent, locally owned businesses; food and restaurant businesses; our food heritage, our family farms and the beauty immigrants bring in sharing their cultures.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

MIKE COLAMECO - Chef, Author, Radio & TV Host

Mike has developed a long and storied career in the food and beverage industry exploring, engaging and enhancing that which nourishes us.

Colameco is a professionally trained chef, author, radio, and TV host. He graduated from the Culinary Institute of America and shared his talents with New York's noted Four Season's Restaurant, Windows on the World, Tavern on the Green and The Ritz Carlton. In the late 1980s through early 1990s his local community Cape Town, New Jersey was home to his restaurant, The Globe. This rich background as a chef lead him to a successful career in food media: as an author with Mike Colameco's Food Lover's Guide to New York City, as a host/producer of the radio show Food Talk, and as a host/producer of Mike Colameco's Real Food. Since it launched in 2000, Mike Colameco's Real Food on PBS' Create TV has been a popular, enduring, documentary-style show sharing a real chef's point of view at how the restaurant world is transforming the way we think about food & our community.

PRESENTED BY:

JOHNSON
FINANCIAL GROUP

MIKE
COLAMECO'S
REAL FOOD