

Global Voices of Women in the Financial Industry

Tuesday
MARCH 21
11:00 am - 1:00 pm

BMO Tower
790 N Water Street
Milwaukee

Presented by BMO and WWBIC

These four women have broken the glass ceiling and become leading forces in the financial industry. Learn how they did it when they share their backgrounds and success stories at this no-fee panel.

BMO

Vachon Harper-Young

Vachon Harper-Young is the Vice President and Senior Manager of Vertical Industry Programs at BMO. She has been in banking for over 25 years in a variety of sales, management and individual contributor roles. She received the Award of Excellence as a top lender and has received the Raising the BAR Leadership Award from BMO Alliance for Women Chicago. Throughout her banking career, Vachon has been supporting small businesses as a trusted advisor providing access to capital and business education training. She is an active member of the Chicagoland community serving as The Idea Candidates Board Chair, Board Member for the Association House of Chicago, a member of the Allies for Community Business (CDFI) Portfolio Advisory Council, and more.

Denisse Pachuca

Denisse Pachuca has been in banking for over 18 years. She joined BMO Harris Bank in 2009 and currently serves as the Senior Manager of Industry Verticals. Pachuca is the Wisconsin presence for the BMO Women in Business and Black, LatinX and Native American Small Business Program. She enjoys sharing her knowledge and providing financial education and solutions in local communities which aids our local business owners in reaching their business and personal financial goals. She is viewed as a trusted advisor to the customers she has had the pleasure to work with. She was born in Puerto Rico and moved to Milwaukee in the late 1980s.

Leticia Flores Poole

Leticia Flores Poole has been in banking for over 20 years. She joined BMO Harris Bank in 2016 and her current role is as the co-chair of the BMO Women in Business and Black, LatinX and Native American Small Business Program. Leticia enjoys educating and helping people in our communities reach their financial goals through teaching, coaching and connecting. Recently she had the opportunity to work with the State of Minority Small Business group at BMO, helping minority businesses voices be heard. She has been a board member for multiple organizations, including the Supporting Professionals Network Association, South Chicago Chamber of Commerce, Northwest Connection Chamber of Commerce, Latinas in Childcare, and North Side Latinos Progress.

Kelly Turnquist

Kelly Turnquist (D'Amato) has been in banking for over 25 years. As a former M&I employee, Kelly rejoined BMO in 2019 as the Vice President, Relationship Manager in BMO's Financial Wellness group called Bank at Work. The program is designed to equip businesses and organizations with an additional tool in their benefits package for recruitment, retention, and productivity. Kelly is very passionate about providing financial education to our community and helping companies and organizations achieve engagement with their teams by ensuring they are financially well. Kelly has been an active participant in TEMPO Milwaukee since 2018 and is on the membership committee.

- Pre-registration is required -

This panel will be moderated by
Kamaljit K. Jackson
Vice President of Programs and Operations, WWBIC

Register today online at bit.ly/bmowomen23